Subject:- Legal assistance to Mr. Nittkkaute Nair, Inspector of Police, South Kanara - Miscellaneous charges.

A.S

Please see paragraph 4 of G.O. No. 1698 Law (Gen) dated 13/4/31. The I.G. now reports that the sum of Rs 4|- reported as miscellaneous charges ~~represents~~ the amount spent by the pleader to meet ~~in connection with~~ "typing and copying charges and postage".

p 7 of (X)

M 2 It is usual for Govt to sanction to a pleader defending a Govt. servant only his fees. In a case dealt with in 1929 a pleader put in a claim for writing fees for his clerk but this was disallowed on the grounds that the pleader was expected to have a clerk and that it was not usual to allow clerk's fees. In the present case the charges claimed seem to have been incurred on ordinary items of work which are done in a pleader's ~~fee~~ office. It does not appear that a claim on this behalf should be admitted. Besides this may create an inconvenient precedent and lead to similar claims in future. The question is, however, one for ~~Public (Police)~~ to consideration

Please see para 2 of the Law Dept note on page 1 ante. In G.O. No. 2698 Law (Gl) dated 28.6.30 (which is a precedent more recent than the one quoted in the Law Dept note supra) the Govt in the Law Dept sanctioned an expenditure of Rs 188-6-0 in connection with the defence of a Sub Inspector of Police in a civil suit for damages, against him. This amount included a sum of Rs 5/- ~~spent towards~~ for "typing and clerk's fee." I/or orders whether in the circumstances the claim of the pleader in question for Rs 4 on account of "typing and copying charges and postage" may be ~~disallowed~~ admitted if Phase see the note of this deptt. on pp.1-2 ante... Public (Police) Say that the amount of Rs 4/- for "typing and copying Charges and postage" is a fair one which Govt might bear. The amount is to be debited the Police budget; but, as pointed out abroad Similar claims involving larger sums than the one now under consideration may be preferred in future and this case is likely to form a precedent. If Finance agree, this deptt. need not perhaps object to the Claim being admitted. A draft order is submitted for consideration. The file to be sent to Finance a.o.
